

Central New Jersey Area Meeting Thursday, August 17, 2017

Medford Nursery, 560 Eayrestown Road, Lumberton, NJ

You are invited to spend a relaxing and fun day with colleagues exploring two great New Jersey nurseries plus the innovative Rutgers University EcoComplex. We will gather at Medford Nursery which maintains over 400 acres of quality container nursery stock. Attendees will have the opportunity to tour Medford's operation from their propagation department with its new perennial program through to shipping where material heads out the door to customers. From there we will travel from stop to stop using your own transportation. The next tour is of the Rutgers University EcoComplex Greenhouse which is a multi-institutional, multidisciplinary environmental center that works to develop and apply innovative environmental/agricultural technologies. We will tour the greenhouse and hear presentations from one or two of the greenhouse "tenants". Our final stop of the day is Pleasant Run Nursery where we will first enjoy lunch courtesy of owners Rich and Heidi Hesselein and then tour the nursery. Pleasant Run specializes in new plant introductions and unusual containerized woody ornamentals and perennials.
