WELCOME FUNCTION: Novotel Geelong, Wednesday Evening

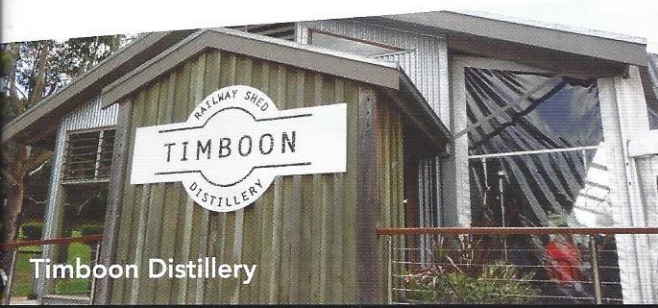

Thursday: Opening of conference and speaker presentations all day. Highlights include: 'Which Plant Where' by Leigh Staas and Andrew Laidlaw speaking on 'The importance of plants in the landscape'. Dr Jose will be speaking about 'Tissue culture propagation of temperate woody ornamentals'. Presentations will also be made by: Horticultural Innovations Australia. Dinner will be your own choice of the many eateries closeby.

Friday: Presentations in the morning will include Allister Watt, 'Modern day plant hunting'. Tony Bundock, 'Greenhouse climate management'. Dr Ranjith on 'Early detection of plant pathogens'. Afternoon will include an interactive session at Gordon TAFE and a visit to the very modern efficient Boomaroo Nursery. Friday night will be the Gala Dinner at Novotel Geelong.

Saturday: AGM in the morning for IPPS members with presentations to follow including: Michael Pritchard - 'Hygiene with regards to biosecurity' and Scott Tucker 'Biological water treatment'.

SATURDAY EVENING:

Conference will close with a dinner and drinks at Little Creatures Brewery, a Geelong icon where all beer is brewed on the premises. The option of a private tour is available for $20 per person, however numbers are limited. A great way to end the conference in a funky, social environment.
